

Learn French in Paris, all useful info now in spanish too !

Published on August 12, 2015 – Updated on May 10, 2016

For our future spanish-speaking students, from Spain or South-America, the ILCF- Catholic University of Paris launches a new website in spanish.

On its pages you'll find the essential information about our courses : short courses, semester courses, evening courses and our specialities :

- Culture and civilization
- Professional French
- University preparation

This new website also focuses on how to prepare your stay, one of the keys for successful studies in France, with various "useful info" sections. A detailed section presents as well the services of the campus and the quality of the welcoming we are happy to offer onsite :

- Housing and airport transfer
- Life on the ICP Campus, services of the campus
- Frequently Asked Questions
- List of useful links and documents
