

News

ILCF Talent Show 2019: An Unforgettable Moment

Each year, ILCF organizes an annual talent show. This event places the spotlight on our international students, allowing them to share their talents in a friendly, encouraging and festive atmosphere.

Spend Summer 2019 in Paris !

During the Summer, ILCF hosts over 450 foreign students, representing 70 different nationalities. Learn French while participating in free cultural activities all over Paris.

ICP International Potluck: Discovering New Cultures & Cuisines

On March 20th, 2019, ILCF and the Delegation of International Affairs held its first joint international potluck.

Carnets de Mobilité – The International Event of the Year for ICP Students!

The 3rd edition of the annual « Carnets de Mobilité » took place this past March, an event dedicated to students interested in studying abroad.

ILCF Students Go Behind the Scenes of Palais Garnier

ILCF students in the Panorama of Literature & Ideas in France-19th & 20th centuries class, discover classical dance and much more.

Boston College : A Semester Studying Abroad

Combining her passion for international and current events, a dream come true for Tatiana who is studying Economics and Political Sciences at ICP. Read more about her semester at the prestigious Boston College.

The Institut Catholique de Paris Welcomes International Students : Bienvenue à Paris !

From Taiwan to Italy, the USA to Lebanon, approximately forty international exchange students were recently welcomed to the ICP campus for their academic semester abroad.

Paris Agreement: Ecological Challenges in light of the Common Good

The United States' announcement of its intention to withdraw from the international agreement signed in 2015 in Paris places the fight against global warming at the heart of the debate. In this context, the notion of the common good is capable of shedding unique light on the ecological challenges of our time.

Learn French in Paris, all useful info now in spanish too !

For our future spanish-speaking students, from Spain or South-America, the ILCF- Catholic University of Paris launches a new website in spanish.

Yuki and Felipe : students experiments of French courses at the ILCF Paris

The ILCF welcomes every year about 2500 students. All of them want to learn French but do they have the same goal ? What is the origin of their motivation that make them cross half the planet ?

