

Useful websites

In the section called "étudiants étrangers" you will find information regarding your stay in Paris in English and Spanish. The website gives you everything you need to succeed in your studies in the capital city.

Studyrama and Campus France websites also offer some practical tips and informations to have a nice stay in France as an international student.

You may check the website of the Cité Universitaire Internationale de Paris which hosts several thousands international students in 40 different houses gathered around a park of 34 hectares. The housing accomodation are mainly for doctorate and some master degree students. It is also a place with a lot of cultural activities (theatre, concerts...) and sports infrastructures.

The city of Paris' official website : www.paris.fr

Culture, sports, parks and gardens, education, administrative procedures: everything the French capital has to offer from the rollerblade parade to the latest exhibit at the new museum Quai Branly.

For your different trips, it is also possible to organise a car-pooling with the website covoiturage.