General background	Founded in 1875, Institut Catholique de Paris is the inheritor of the Medieval Liberal Art College and the Sorbonne, the oldest academic institution in France. Inspired by a long Christian and Humanistic tradition, ICP values open-mindedness and dialogue across borders. It teaches 10,000 students (1/3 international). Centrally located in the 6th district of Paris between the Latin Quarters and Saint-Germain-des-Près. ICP is built on the site of an old Carmelite convent from 17th century. ICP is a place of serenity and history, a unique environment conducive to study, research and campus life. The six Faculties of ICP deliver Bachelor, Master and Doctorate degrees in six complementary teaching and research areas: Humanities, Economic and Social Sciences, Education, Theology and Religious Studies, Philosophy and Canon Law. Its unique "Religion, Culture and Society" Research Unit, recognized by the French Ministry of Higher Education and Research includes five interdisciplinary research centers and teaches 240 doctoral students (40% international). ICP has been awarded the ERASMUS+ Charter for Higher Education for the period 2014-2021 and is part of major international networks, such as the International Federation of Catholic Universities (IFCU) and European Federation of Catholic Universities (EFCU).
