Lectures (CM)

Professor: Laurence Chamlou (PhD Sorbonne Nouvelle, Paris)

Course description

The lectures consider postcolonialism as a literary current and critical approach. Since the major step taken by Edward Said and the important reflections of Homi Bhaba, postcolonialism has developed and today offers us new writings and approaches. The sessions will be structured around the critical study of different texts by and secondary commentaries about the major authors representative of postcolonial thought today, among them Salman Rushdie, Amitav Ghosh, Anita Desai, Arundhati Roy, V.S. Naipaul, Amit Chaudhuri...
