A first Ukrainian teenagers visit to ILCF

Annie: From Washington D.C. to Paris!

Azizah: from Indonesia to Paris!

On its campus located in the heart of Paris, five minutes from the Latin Quarter and Saint-Germain-des-Prés, the Catholic University of Paris founded in 1875 welcomes 2,500 international students each year.

If you do not speak French, the ICP is delighted to welcome you to our courses taught in English.

The Faculty of Law, Economics and Social Sciences, and the Faculty of Liberal Arts offer nearly 150 courses taught in English.

A B2 level in English is required for the courses that are taught entirely in English. These courses are open to exchange students and auditors.

We are waiting for you in Paris, be the first to take advantage of these courses in English!
