British Civilisation (Bachelor Year 3 / Fall)

Bachelor in Applied Foreign Languages (English) / Faculty of Liberal Arts

Introduction

In this course, we will explore key aspects of British civilisation, including politics, society, economics and culture. Emphasis is placed on questions of identity: What does it mean to be British today? Is there such a thing as British culture? These questions will be explored in relation to British history and contemporary society. We will consider the diversity of Britain today in relation to race, religion, class, gender and other characteristics. Britain's role as a colonial and postcolonial power is studied, alongside the complicated place of Europe in British thought and public life. The contemporary transformation of British civilisation into a global commodity is examined.

Indicative topics: Introduction: Britain today Nations and national identities Religion in Britain Race in Britain Class in Britain Gender in Britain Neoliberalism The climate emergency Legacies of empire Culture and commodification Britain and Europe Exam preparation

Objectives

By the end of the course, students will be able to:

- Understand key issues related to contemporary Britain
- Critically reflect on contemporary political, economic and social trends like the rise of inequality
- Deconstruct key concepts like national identity and British culture
- Write short analyses on the topics studied in class

Duration

1 semester

Teaching languages

English

Conditions of submission

If you need more information about this course, kindly send an email to: incomingdri@icp.fr

ICP Paris - Institut Catholique de Paris

Faculty of Liberal Arts 74 rue de Vaugirard 75006 Paris

Admission

Prerequisite

Prerequisites training

Minimum level of English B1.

Program

Methods of Instruction

A 2-hour weekly lecture. 12 weeks of teaching in total, with the final week dedicated to exam preparation. Interaction and discussion are encouraged.

Assessment and Final Grade

A 2-hour written exam during the exam period at the end of the semester. Students write short responses to 3 questions, from a choice of about 11.

Course Requirements

Material to help prepare each lecture is made available on the learning platform. Students are expected to spend 1-2 hours per week preparing for the lecture.

ICP Paris - Institut Catholique de Paris

Faculty of Liberal Arts 74 rue de Vaugirard 75006 Paris