

English Grammatical Theme (Bachelor Year 1 / Spring)

Bachelor in Applied Foreign Languages (English) / Faculty of Liberal Arts

Introduction

In this course, we will review grammar concepts and translate press extracts from French to English.

Objectives

This tutorial has a double objective: on the one hand, this course aims to allow students to consolidate their grammatical knowledge in English, on the other hand it is an initiation to the techniques of translation into French and English. In grammar, in the second semester, we will study questions related to the noun. Regarding the translation part, we will focus on themes taken or adapted from press extracts on various subjects: societal, political, business or cultural.
