

English Listening Comprehension (Bachelor Year 2 / Spring)

Bachelor in Applied Foreign Languages (English) / Faculty of Liberal Arts

Introduction

By listening to audio extracts, taken from current affairs, entertainment, industry, and culture, including different regions and registers, students will improve their listening and writing skills.

Objectives

Students will improve their comprehension, note-taking and ability to synthesise and present information.

Admission

Prerequisite

Prerequisites training

Students should have an advanced English level and be able to concentrate during the playing of extracts, containing sometimes unfamiliar subject matter.

Program

Methods of Instruction

Multiple listens to the audio extracts will be followed by comprehension questions or summary writing activities.

Assessment and Final Grade

The assessment will be the average of two in-class assignments, written in exam conditions.

Course Requirements

Regular attendance and the completion of both tests are the minimum requirements of the course.

Duration

1 semester

Teaching languages

- English

Conditions of submission

If you need more information about this course, kindly send an email to: incomingdri@icp.fr