"Brief Encounter!": A Look Back at the 2024 Short Story Contest at ILCF

A first Ukrainian teenagers visit to ILCF

Annie: From Washington D.C. to Paris!

On its campus located in the heart of Paris, five minutes from the Latin Quarter and Saint-Germain-des-Prés, the Catholic University of Paris founded in 1875 welcomes 2,500 international students each year.

If you do not speak French, the ICP is delighted to welcome you to our courses taught in English.

The Faculty of Social Sciences, Economics and Law - Download the summary course catalogue - and the Faculty of Liberal Arts - Download the summary course catalogue - offer nearly 170 courses taught in English.

A B2 level in English is required for the courses that are taught entirely in English. These courses are open to exchange students and auditors.
