Programs in English

Focus on
Master in International and European Business Law

For the academic year, enrollment of international students will be conducted by the faculties which they belong as part of their study time at the ICP.

1- Information on courses

- The summary of courses open is available on request at the secretariat of the faculty at the following address : 19 rue d'Assas - 75006 Paris.

2 - Relevant contacts

Registration of International students will be conducted by the following staff :

At the Faculty of Social Sciences and Economics (FASSE) (Humanities)

At the FDL Faculty (Social Administration and Economy)

If required according to the student's curricula, the FASSE and the FDL faculties will also proceed with the registration in courses from other faculties (Philosophy, Theology…) : in such a case, the student shall ask the above-mentioned contact according to its Major (Humanities or Social Sciences).